GENERAL RULES

ELIGIBILITY & ENTRY DEADLINES

1. The Show is open to exhibitors of Highlands County clubs and chapters who are registered 4-H and/or FFA members that comply with the respective organization's rules and regulations and are currently enrolled in school (public, private, virtual school, or home school, first through twelfth grades). A junior exhibitor is between the ages 8-11, intermediate exhibitor is between the ages 12-14, and a senior exhibitor is between the ages 15 and up. All ages are based upon September 1, 2018.
2. No entry will be allowed in the Show that is not a registered 4-H or FFA project.
3. All middle and high school livestock exhibitors must be a full-time student and have a 2.0 cumulative or current year GPA on coursework taken at current school. Eligibility for elementary students will be based on principal/teacher recommendation. All exhibitors must be in good standing according to the Code of Student Conduct as required by The School Board of Highlands County for participation in extracurricular activities. All GPA's will be requested from the School Board of Highlands County in January prior to the fair. GPA's will be figured from this point on.

Seniors in High School that have completed requirements for graduation prior to the Fair may participate in the Junior Livestock Show, providing they were enrolled in High School in Highlands County at the beginning of the current school year and they meet all other requirements of this rule book including organizational membership requirements and GPA requirements for extra-curricular activities participation.

4. The Junior Livestock Rules Committee reserves the right to alter or modify procedures, classes, schedules or rules in this book for safety, show facility restrictions or other circumstances that may arise during the entire course of the Highlands County Fair Junior Livestock Show period beginning with first orientations through final release of animals at the Fair.
5. PROTESTS. Protests of any ruling or incident arising in connection with the Junior Livestock Show will be considered only if submitted in writing within 6 hours of the occurrence. Protests of any judge's decision will not be considered. Protests must be submitted in writing to the Junior Livestock Rules Committee accompanied by a $100.00 money order made payable to the Highlands County Fair Association. Within 24 hours of filing the protest, the Junior Livestock Rules Committee will assemble a quorum to rule on the matter. Protestor will be afforded the opportunity to address the committee for a brief statement, no longer than 5 minutes, on the protest if they desire before a ruling is made. Upon rendering their ruling, all parties involved or affected will be notified of the outcome by the Junior Livestock Chairman or their designated representative. Once a ruling is made, the matter will be considered closed; no further action will be considered by the Junior Livestock Rules Committee. If the ruling goes in favor of the protestor, the $100.00 will be returned; otherwise, the protestor forfeits same.
6. Each exhibitor, club or chapter enter only one (1) market animal (Hog, Steer, or Goat) and one (1) Commercial Heifer in the Junior Livestock Show, however, the market animal is the only animal that may be sold if a market animal and Commercial Heifer are entered. An exhibitor may win overall champion in any category shown. In order to show Commercial Heifers or Goats that will not be presented at auction there will be no sale fee of $50.00 and $25.00, respectively, which must be paid at the time the record book is submitted or you will not be allowed to show.

7. An entry form will not be accepted from an exhibitor that did not pay all bills related to their previous year's project within 45 days from the date the Sale and Premium checks were mailed. All checks issued by the Highlands County Fair Board will be void after 60 days from the date on the check.
8. A chapter or club animal must have a designated exhibitor by January 10th at 3pm and no changes in exhibitor may be made, except as allowed by rule #42, from injury illness, or other emergency. Exhibitor must meet all 4-H and FFA requirements.
9. All animals will be tattooed, tagged and/or photographed for identification at initial mandatory weigh-in and animal identification as set forth in the calendar of events.
10. Any animal at final weigh in without proper identification either tattoo and/or tagged will not be admitted into the Fair. Exhibitor must contact the Junior Livestock to report your animals missing ear tag by emailing highlandsjuniorlivestock@gmail.com
11. ALL entry forms must be completed to include ALL information on exhibitor and department including small animals. Entry forms must be completed and turned in by entry date as set in calendar of events for exhibitor's respective show department. A sales receipt showing place of purchase with signature and phone number of owner or manager of place of purchase must be turned in with entry form. Small animals are not exempt from turning in a signed sales receipt.
12. NO ENTRIES WILL BE ALLOWED AFTER ENTRY DATE AS SET IN CALENDAR OF EVENTS. ANY ENTRY MAY BE DISQUALIFIED AT ANY TIME if the exhibitor or entry does not meet any or all rules pertaining to them as set down in the Rules and Regulations of the Highlands County Junior Livestock Show. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE FOR ANY REASON CONCERNING ENTRY DEADLINES.
13. If it is determined that an animal will not meet eligibility requirements due to illness or injury, as attested to by a veterinarian, or due to natural death, a substitute animal that meets all requirements of the entered category defined within, and approved by the Junior Livestock Rules Committee will be allowed so long as the written request for substitution is submitted to the Junior Livestock Rules Committee by the following dates (~45 days from the entry date for the entered category):
 - a. Steers & Heifers- 10/01/2018
 - b. Hogs- 11/30/2018
 - c. Meat Goats- 12/16/2018
 - d. Small Animals- 01/18/2019
14. The substitute animal will not be eligible for weight gain competition and must be purchased within 10 days of Junior Livestock Board Approval.
15. Arrangements for market animals to be sold or slaughtered after they do not make it into the Fair, is the responsibility of the exhibitor. The Highlands County Fair Assoc., Jr. Livestock Rules Committee, or Extension Service will not be held responsible for these arrangements.

SHOW ORIENTATION & ADMISSION TO SHOW

16. All animals will be admitted to the Fairgrounds on the dates set in the Calendar of Events by Exhibitor Only. If conflicts arise, written excuses may be granted, but must be cleared with the Junior Livestock Rules Committee 24 hours PRIOR to the check-in. Animals will be admitted only at these times. Sifting committees at the designated areas will weigh-in, check identification, and determine that specific and general requirements for show departments as listed in later sections of this book are met by each animal and exhibitor.
17. This rule is to notify the exhibitor(s) it is their responsibility to comply with state and federal Animal Identification Rules, which will be enforced by state and/or federal animal health inspectors at the entrance to the fair (Final Weigh In). All Beef Animals (Steers and Heifers) 18 months of age and older at time of final weigh in are required to have a unique animal identification (Premise ID) that complies with Florida Administrative Code 5C-31 (F.A.C 5C-31), answers to Frequently Asked Questions are available at Beef FAQ. All Swine, regardless of age, are required to have a unique animal identification (Premise ID) that complies with Title 9 Code of Federal Regulation 71-19 (CFR 71-19), answers to Frequently Asked Questions are available at Swine FAQ. Compliance advice is as follows:
 - a. If the animal has a Premise ID Tag that is compliant with the State and/or Federal Rules noted above it is unlawful to remove the tag and as long as the Premise ID remains in place there is no additional tag/identification required by the exhibitor.
 - b. If the animal does not have a Premise ID:
 - i. Confirm with the breeder/supplier of your animal if a Premise ID Tag is available to tag the animal.
 - ii. If the breeder/supplier does not provide a Premise ID Tag, To obtain a Premise ID number, contact the office of the State Veterinarian at (850) 410-0900 or complete the Application for Premises Registration  and submit the document to CattleForms@FreshFromFlorida.com.
 - iii. With the Premise ID established, contact a local animal health supplier and order tags, alternatively NUES Tags are available for free from the FDACS District Office, examples of the compliant tags are available at http://www.aphis.usda.gov/traceability/downloads/ADT_device_ain.pdf
18. Any animal that becomes uncontrollable by exhibitor or unruly after entering the fairgrounds and any time during fair week, will be dismissed from show, moved to a

FDACS District 6 Office
(863) 462-5171
123 NW 36th Street, Suite 123
Okeechobee, FL 34972

holding area and must leave the grounds as determined by a quorum of the Junior Livestock Rules Committee.

19. Animals will be allowed to weigh one time only at the Fair Sifting and Weigh-in. In case an animal weighs out, exhibitor may request the scales be zeroed and re-weighed immediately. The request must be made before the animal leaves the scales and the animal cannot be removed from the scale area before being re-weighed.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS & RECOMMENDATIONS

20. Trucks or trailers hauling livestock must be clean and disinfected prior to hauling to Fairgrounds.
21. All livestock for exhibition in Florida must be accompanied by a valid official certificate of veterinary inspection (OCVI) to presentation (OCVI) issued by an accredited veterinarian. All certificates of veterinary inspection for cattle and swine must show detailed record of tests for each animal, tattoo or ear tag number, brand letters or numbers, and if from a tuberculosis certified herd, give accredited or certified herd number prior to Date of Final Weigh-In.
22. All market steers and swine shall be sold for slaughter.
23. The Junior Livestock Committee recommends that all beef animals including steers be given preventative vaccinations for blackleg, malignant edema, and pneumonia type diseases (IBR, BVD, PI3, Hemorrhagic Septicemia).
24. No shots or vaccinations will be administered to any animals 45 days prior to final weigh in unless administered by veterinarian as prescribed by legal label. Absolutely no shots or injections will be allowed after final weigh in onto Fairgrounds. Additionally, each exhibitor and their parents or guardian will be required to sign a statement guaranteeing that their animal is drug free.
25. Any animal that becomes ill or contracts what may be a contagious illness or disease after entering the Fairgrounds will be moved to a holding area and be disqualified from the show upon examination and advice of a veterinarian.
26. All poultry and rabbit entries must be clean and free of insects and infectious diseases prior to admission to the Fairgrounds.
27. All poultry must meet all state regulations relative to poultry as required by the Florida Department of Agriculture and must have a negative test for Pullorum Typhoid at the time of admission to the Fair.

BARN & CONDUCT RULES

28. All exhibitors, leaders, and parents are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous, orderly, professional, positive, and sportsmanship like manner at all times, or they will be dismissed from the Fair and will be banned from participating in future Fairs.
29. Any exhibitor at the barn during school hours other than days they are preparing for a show they are entered in will be disqualified unless accompanied by a Parent or Teacher.
30. Exhibitors assume all liability in cases of death or injury to their animals. Every effort will be made to prevent accidents, however, neither the Highlands County Fair Association or the Junior Livestock Show Committee, its members, nor the sponsorship of the Fair will be responsible.

31. Exhibitors will be responsible for providing for the care and feeding of their animals. This includes feed and water containers, and clean quarters for their animals. If the barn superintendent has to care for any animal due to neglect of an exhibitor, the exhibitor shall forfeit their premium money, will be placed on a one-year probation status and will be fined $50.00.
32. Hog Exhibitors must supply their own water pipe (4-6” pvc pipe with cap). You will also need two 8” metal hose clamps to secure your water pipe to the pens.
33. Sand will be provided for steers and heifers only. Swine exhibitors MUST PROVIDE shavings for their stalls.
34. All hogs will be housed on shavings which will be provided by the exhibitor. Animals should be conditioned to this environment prior to the Fair. No additional shavings may be stored in the barn.
35. Exhibitors should care for and fit animals while at the Fair with minimal assistance from parents and leaders. Parents and Leaders may assist when safety and education are involved, but exhibitor must be present when parents and leaders are performing any grooming or related duties or exhibitor shall forfeit their premium money.
36. Animals will be on display for the duration of the Fair, animals will be released only at the times designated in the Calendar of Events for each species.
37. Parents of exhibitors will be given 2 gate passes per family not per exhibitor. You may purchase up to 2 more gate passes for the entire week. Passes will be available for purchase up until February 4, 2019 from the Highlands County Fair Office.

SHOW RULES

38. The Livestock Show Categories Are:

- a. Market Steer
- b. Commercial Heifers
- c. Market Swine
- d. Meat Goat
- e. Poultry
- f. Rabbits.

39. Entry by exhibitor expressly implies their willingness to accept the decision of all judges. The utmost care will be taken by the Junior Livestock Rules Committee to select qualified Judges.

40. Large Animals will be judged on the American System of Judging. Small Animals will be judged using the modified Danish system. THE DECISION OF ALL JUDGES WILL BE FINAL, and awards (ribbons, rosettes, and trophies) will be given by judges on an individual exhibits merit.

41. All Exhibitors are required to wear appropriate show attire, which shall be clean and neat. All exhibitors shall be dressed in white, green, dark blue, or dark black jeans or slacks with a solid white collared long-sleeved shirt, which must be tucked in. 4-H or FFA accessories are strongly recommended. No caps or hats will be allowed. Closed toed shoes or boots are required for sifting and show. If exhibitor does not meet proper show attire requirements he or she will not be allowed to show.

42. If injury, illness, or other emergency prevents an exhibitor from showing their animal, an alternate individual may show for the entrant, provided they meet the qualifications of rules 1-3 and the matter is brought to the attention of the Jr. Livestock Rules Committee in writing prior to the beginning of the particular class showing.

SHOWMANSHIP CONTESTS

43. There will be a showmanship contest in all show categories. Showmanship contests will be divided into Junior (8-11), Intermediate (12-14) Senior (15 & up) divisions. ALL large animal showmanship classes will be determined during Market Show. Age determined as of September 1, 2018.

44. All small animal exhibitors are eligible for showmanship and can participate if they so choose excluding Pee-Wee and Clover Buds.

45. The top 2 individuals in Showmanship contests will be placed in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior divisions.

JUDGING CONTESTS

46. There will be a Junior Livestock Judging Contest during Fair Week. Any registered 4-H or FFA member who meets the grade requirements of General Rule #3, above, may participate in the Junior Livestock Judging Contest.

RECORD BOOK CONTESTS

47. There will be a Record Book contest for all Junior, Intermediate, and Senior exhibitors. The completed Highlands County Fair Record Book will be used. Exhibitor will forfeit premium money if a completed record book is not turned in.
48. All Record Books must be turned into the Junior Livestock Committee, per the calendar of events.
49. ALL Exhibitors must submit their Record Book for competition. In the event the exhibitor or animal does not make the fair the exhibitor must turn in a completed Highlands County Fair Record Book for each entry in order to receive a livestock arm band for entry into the Highlands County Fair for the week.
50. The Record Book must not be in a binder, folder, page protector or notebook and contain no artwork. The Record Book must not be disassembled. The book must be stapled. The Record Book will not be judged if the previously mentioned is not followed.
51. Only Hand-Written Record Books will be eligible for Neatness points when scored.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SALE

52. The Junior Livestock Sale will be held at the Fair on the date set in the Calendar of Events and
53. Order of Sale will be determined by the Junior Livestock Show Committee.
54. The Highlands County Fair Board will serve as the agent for the exhibitor and buyer in selling the animal. The exhibitor (seller) should allow at least 60 days for their checks. Checks issued by the Highlands County Fair Board will be void 60 days after issue date. A Livestock fee of 5% of the total sale price for each animal will be charged to cover expenses of the Sale including judges, auctioneer expenses, beef and pork industry charges, buyer picture, etc.
55. An exhibitor may sell one (1) market animal or Commercial Heifer in the Jr. Livestock Auction. If two (2) large animals are entered, the market animal must be the one sold at the Jr. Livestock Auction. A market animal is either a market steer, market hog or market goat. All steers and swine shown at the Fair must go through the sale ring and to slaughter.
56. All sale animals and exhibitors must meet any and all Rules and Regulations requirements for show and sale that apply to them in this book. Any animal or exhibitor disqualified from show competition or dismissed for any reason prior to sale night, will not be allowed through the sale ring.
57. Any exhibitor that “No Sales” their Commercial Heifer or Goat will be charged, $50.00 and $25.00, respectively. No sale means exhibitor declared at fair final weigh-in that they will not sell the animal.
58. In order to insure continued good relationships with Sale Buyers and their participation in the Junior Livestock Sale, all exhibitors that sell an animal in the Junior Livestock Sale must have a professional like thank you letter, in a stamped pre-addressed, NON-SEALED ENVELOPE to the buyer of their animal. This letter is to be placed in a designated box located near the office in the Livestock Barn on the date as set in the Calendar of Events. Any exhibitor not complying will forfeit any and all prize money won. Sale money will be held until the letter is written.

59. All Exhibitors are required to wear appropriate show attire, which shall be clean and neat. All exhibitors shall be dressed in white, green, dark blue, or dark black jeans or slacks with a solid white collared long-sleeved shirt, which must be tucked in. FFA or 4-H accessories are strongly recommended. No caps or hats will be allowed. Closed toed shoes or boots are required. If exhibitor does not meet proper show attire requirements he or she will not be allowed to sell.
60. Payment(s) to exhibitor will be mailed to address provided on the entry form. In the event of an address change after the entry form is submitted an address change can be submitted to the Jr. Livestock Committee via email highlandsjuniorlivestock@gmail.com. Failure to update the mailing address prior to payments being mailed may delay the receipt of the payment.

MARKET STEER RULES AND REGULATIONS

ALL MARKET STEERS MUST GO TO SLAUGHTER!

1. Steers must be owned by exhibitors and be under exhibitor's management prior to the initial weigh-in and it is recommended that steers be on feed for 30 days prior to the initial Weigh-In. It is recommended that Market Steers weigh at least 700 pounds at the time of initial weigh-in.
2. All steers must be dehorned and healed in order to show or exhibit. Any horn re-growth will be evaluated by the Junior Livestock Committee. All steers must not exceed 24 months of age at Fair time. All steers may be mouthed by a qualified veterinarian. No bulls or stags will be permitted.
3. All steers must be born and raised in Highlands, Glades, Okeechobee, Osceola, Polk, Hardee, Desoto, or Charlotte Counties.
4. All Steers must arrive at the Fair clipped to a maximum of a quarter inch hair over the body only leaving the switch. Clipping of steers must be done before arrival at the fair. Clipping must be of the head-top knot-poll, tail head, body underline, and legs above the knee and hock. Steers will be checked at final weigh-in and will not be allowed to show with more than a quarter inch of hair. If steer needs to be re-clipped it must be taken to the end of the weigh in line and must be back in line by 7:30 am. If steer is not back in line by 7:30 am or fails recheck of close clipping by 7:30 am, steer will be disqualified. Altering the coat after check in will result in automatic disqualification.
5. All steer entries are automatically entered in the weight-gain contest from the initial weigh-in. Steers will be initially weighed in at the Highlands County Fairgrounds on the date set in the Calendar of Events. All steers will be weighed-in to the Fair on the date set in the Calendar of Events to determine show and sale weights.
6. Steers must be halter broken, controlled by exhibitor, properly trained and should be in show condition at admission time. They must weigh a minimum of 1,000 pounds and with no maximum weight, at weigh-in time of Fair week. Exhibitor will be paid up to 1365 pounds. The Junior Livestock Committee recommends that all steers have gained a minimum of 2.00 pounds per day since initial weigh-in.
7. Steers will be assigned to show classes by weight upon arrival at the Fair. No separation will be made by breed.
8. Official judging of the Market Steer Show will be on the date as set in the Calendar of Events.
9. Overall and Reserve Overall Champion Steer Exhibitor. The overall and reserve overall champion steer exhibitors will be determined by accumulation of points by all exhibitors through their participation in various aspects of the Junior Livestock Show and steer competition. The total number of points possible will be 100 and will be accumulated on a percentage basis in the following manner:
 - a. Weight Gain Contest 5%
